W L Davies

Guest Speaker : Llyr Beaumont Jones Economic and Community
Senior Manager
Re: Caernarfon Waterfront

They were welcomed by the Mayor

It was noted that several regeneration programmes have existed in the past that haven't been completely successful

This project will take on board local's thoughts right from the start of the process

The dialogue between locals will create the foundations for the artist's work where they will try to interpret the comments in their work

School children's opinions are also key

12 applications on the shortlist and only 4 will be successful

The idea of cubes is a different one and its concepts like this that the Arts Council like in the application

Awaiting an announcement soon regarding the outcome of the application. Feedback so far has been positive. The Town Council were asked to support the scheme, be part of the process and to share the information

1. Apologies

C Williams, H Edwards, G Thomas, E Lovgreen

12. Verbal report from joint meeting with Felinheli Councillors

Noted that both councils were happy to accept on the following conditions:-

1. If the size of the solar park increases then the sum should too
2. That some form of payment is expected for 20 years not just 10 years (as this is the expected life span of such a project)
Also Felinheli's Solicitor is currently looking over the contract to ensure he is happy with the wording

Resolved

To support the recommendations

13. Questions

None

14. Payment to Cllr A Bohana

The clerk explained that whilst Cllr A Bohana was doing voluntary work for the Council on the Bus Shelters his car got damaged and needs to claim on his insurance. He is enquiring whether the Council would be happy to pay the £60 excess seeing as though he was doing the Council at the time

Resolved

Agree to pay if clerk can get confirmation that payment is legal

Meeting ended at 6.50
